FAIRBORN, OH – Greene County Public Health officials announce that the times and the location for available services in Fairborn for the Safe Trade Harm Reduction are changing! We are very excited to be moving to a new location in Fairborn, and the hours of operation are changing.

The locations and times are as follows:

- Mondays and Fridays - 12:30-3:30 PM at Emanuel Ministries, 100 E. Main St., Fairborn, OH 45324 NEW LOCATION!
- Wednesdays - 12:30-3:30 PM at Greene County Public Health, 360 Wilson Dr., Xenia, OH 45385

What is Harm Reduction?

Harm reduction is a practical public health approach that reduces the negative consequences of drug use and promotes the health of people and communities. Comprehensive harm reduction addresses drug use as well as the environment in which someone is using drugs. Greene County Public Health offers several harm reduction programs that meet people where they are to improve the quality of life.
