Local Health and Wellness Fair Brings Together Local Organizations for Resources & Services

YELLOW SPRINGS, OH – The Coretta Scott King Center, in partnership with the Antioch College Wellness Center, Student Affairs Division, and Greene County Public Health, is hosting a health and wellness fair focused on wellness, resources, and community care called “Thrive Together” on Thursday, May 28, from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. at the Antioch College Wellness Center, located at 240 East South College Street in Yellow Springs.

Sixteen different community organizations and individuals will offer resources, services, and information to attendees. Available resources include:

- STI testing & other health screenings
- Mental health resources, medical health, and immunization information
- Health insurance information
- Resources to navigate food insecurity and economic hardship
- Affordable housing information and resources
- Support for caregivers & services for seniors
- Feminine hygiene products
- LGBTQIA+ community support

For a complete list of vendors, please visit the Coretta Scott King Center's website: www.antiochcollege.edu/cskc

There will also be food and fresh produce available for sale. Music will be provided by DJ The Emissary Scorpius Max, and attendees can enjoy a free dance class from 4:30 - 5:30 pm.

Additionally, all fitness classes at the Antioch College Wellness Center on Thursday, May 28th, will be free. Visit the Wellness Center's website for a class schedule: <https://antiochcollege.edu/wellness-center/>

This event is free and open to the public. For more information about this event, please contact Queen Zabriskie, Director of the Coretta Scott King Center, via email at cskc@antiochcollege.edu or phone at 937-767-1286, ext. 0093.
